Evan is your everyday human that happens to hate doing his laundry. While waiting outside the laundry mat he hears motorcycles heading his way. Of course Jaxxon scents / knows / recognizes Evan for his mate. But Evan has hang ups and doesn't give in easily. We met Jaxxon Remus (bear shifter) in the Brac Pack Next Gen series. He and his brothers helped take down a drug lord family and work as 'allies'. Since the Remus Brothers own a motorcycle body repair shop, they have ties with the Santiago brothers back in Brac Village. Thankfully the ties are loose and you don't need to read various back stories to enjoy this one. The news on the street is the hyenas are still around causing problems. Even if some of the kingpins are taken out, the head honcho is now stepping up. By the time the story is over Evan has had one scare after another, spends very little time with Jax, hasn't really found his footing in this new relationship, yet he's confessing his love as the story closes. While everything is tied up with no loose ends, I expected one of the brothers to fall for Evan's co-worker. . . Or his sister. 3.5 stars. - Dan's Wife

Jackson is a fun quick read and a great start to a new series. There are quite a few great characters in this book that I can't wait to read more about. The book was well written and fast paste. My only complaint is that I wish that it was longer. I can't wait for the next book.

Good start on the Remus brothers story. Lots of excitement. Some unexpected violence. But in the end everything works out for all parties.

Great start to a new series. I love all of Lynn Hagen books. She is one of my favorite writers. Looking forward to the next brother's story.

This was another excellent book if you haven't read it do but start from the beginning of Lynn Hagens books you will love them...
