Breakdown (The Capture Games Book 2)

Synopsis

AIRA I'm alone on a back-country road. At least, that's what I believe when my brand new car stalls. The landscape is desolate. I can't get a cellphone signal. I haven't seen any traffic for an hour. There's no way to call for help. Is that salvation I can hear in the V8 rumble of an approaching tow truck? HARLANI can't allow a pretty little thing like Aira to stop at my gas station, set my heart beating all crazy, and drive out of my life. The moment she steps from her car, flashing a glimpse of her creamy thigh, I am obsessed. Insta-f*cking-lust. While she visits the ladies room, I fill her tank, but there's so much more I want to fill for Aira. She captivates me, and that means one thing. I have to have her. All of her. Her sweet little ride, a sports car, is going to breakdown... I've made sure of that. She'll be alone. Defenceless. It's too perfect. Lucky for Aira, I've got a tow truck. Even better, I have a cabin that's quiet, remote, a place where I can play out all the fantasies that I have about my dream girl. Book 2 in The Capture Games series is another story of lust, obsession, and submission, with a revealing twist at the end.

Customer Reviews

It was a hot read. If you read Alex Riley Forced Submission books it is the same premises. This book is somewhat similar to "Taking What's Mine" from Ms. Riley. However, hands down this book is steamier and more sexually intense. It was a great erotic romance novel and would recommend. There are sexual play of abduction, dubcon, forced seduction theme, BDSM, more than vanilla loving and left heroine unable to sit afterwards!

Really enjoyed this short story, only 70 pages; I read it in about 3 hours. It was priced right too @ 0.99p. I liked both main characters very much; they both seemed real to me, and 3D. Harlan was really scary at certain points, and I didn't know which way he was going to go; be really crazy or loving. It had me on the edge of my seat. Very frightening and sexy, all at once. The writing was tight, and it flowed really well. It was a romance but also an adventure. I dropped a * as I wanted more and it was too short; there was a lot more the author could have done here to stretch the suspense. It also ends really abruptly; too abruptly. I certainly would recommend this book to anyone who likes it dark and dirty. I would definitely read something else by this author.

Wow completely hot read. If you've never read her books. This is well written and very thrilling with an unexpected ending.
