Customer Reviews

A must read book. The author is driven by his desire to give back to Palestine by living the day-to-day sufferings of Palestinians in Beirut-Lebanon who were forced by Israelis to flee their homes/villages in 1948(called Nakba). He fights his way through to living the hopes and dreams of his people to return to their homeland. He refuses to be silent to tell the real story of Palestine in a very simplistic way and thus leaving us with the sense of hope to free Palestine to return his own City Akka.

A very interesting book with a rare personal experience and prospective on an era of the Palestinian struggle that was intense and powerful. A must read.

Soul-searching journey and a great read!

Wonderful story. Ammouri presents the Palestinian side of the struggle while cleverly interlacing his personal heartfelt stories. An educational and powerful book to read.
