Seven Hands, Seven Hearts: Prose And Poetry

Synopsis

"Her poems are like hands and hearts and also like lights: they grip and pulse and illuminate. Like the woman herself, the work is grand and modest and forceful. It will shake you, and move you deeply."--The Bloomsbury Review "Woody follows in the tradition of peoples who have understood the power of language, and the place of a poet/singer/storyteller at the center of the world."-- Joy Harjo

Customer Reviews

Her poetry is being lauded, and I'm sure it is deserved. It just didn't resonate for me at all.
