Making Scandal (The Essien Trilogy Book 2)

Synopsis

Sassy, successful Faith Brown has earned her place in the boardroom through hard work and sheer ambition. Making family is not on her agenda when there are businesses to develop and competitors to outdo. So when a casual affair with smooth and irresistible tycoon Mark Essien leads to an unplanned pregnancy, she's determined not to make the mistakes her mother made by living with a man just for the sake of her child. For Mark, personal matters have no place in the boardroom. Spotting the perfect opportunity, he ruthlessly launches a takeover bid for Faith's Investment Brokerage firm. Finding out he'll soon be a father, he knows he can't let the indomitable and sexy Faith go through with her plans of single parenthood. All gloves are off. He'll seduce her by any tactic necessary if it means his child doesn't suffer the same stigma he did as a child. With the media dogging their affairs in the boardroom and the bedroom, they find that making family is harder than making scandal.

Customer Reviews

The saga of the powerful Essien family continues with "Making Scandal". This is Mark's story. Like brother Felix, Mark is intelligent, powerful, respected in the field of finance and handsome. While Felix has settled into domestic bliss with his wife, Ebony, Mark is still single...and bored. The bachelor life is losing its appeal to Mark. He doesn't do long term relationships, and is quite upfront about it with any woman he gets involved with, and he can have any woman he wants...until he met Faith Brown. Faith is intelligent, independent, aggressive and at the top of her game in the finance field. Her last relationship left her cold, which is fine with her. It leaves her totally free to concentrate on her career without any distractions. Mark Essien becomes a distraction Faith cannot ignore. After much back and forth, they began a clandestine affair...played by Faith's rules. They cannot go out together in public, they cannot tell anyone they're seeing each other, and they cannot, under any circumstances discuss business when they're together. Mark is not happy with these rules, but he agrees because he's truly drawn to Faith and wants to spend time with her. Every one of those rules come back to haunt the two lovers and lay waste to their relationship. I understood WHY Faith felt the need to have rules, but felt she was too inflexible, and it actually made it hard to empathize with her...or even like her. I liked Mark. Not once did he seem insincere or have a hidden agenda. Even when "the deal" went down, I didn't blame him. Faith COULD have known about it...had it not been for her rules.
