Synopsis - DragonMan: Descendants Of Man

Why did the Anunnaki come here? Did they create human hybrids? What is their plan for earth? And for us, the human hybrids? Why did some; the original humans (Bigfoot) resist? Will we survive what is yet to come? -- Those who look for the truth, already know -- those that fail to search, are lost -- but those with an open mind will soon come to know... The Descendants Of Man. Much of the story information that was obtained to create this story is believed to be true by many people around the world -- Fact or fiction -- You decide. Following is the Foreword Written in the Novel By Actress, Kya Garwood, who is also known for roles in films such as Into The Woods - National Treasure - Dark Shadows. Ted Lazaris is the successful, number one best-selling, creator and author of the DragonMan series, a 21st century superhero saga - like nothing we've experienced before. With the DragonMan series optioned by CEO/Producer Mario Domina of ThunderBall Films Ltd., Ted can add screenwriter, producer and, if that wasn't enough, writer of lyrics to two songs set to feature in the films, to his impressive list of achievements. The amazing story of DragonMan was born at the dawn of the 21st Century, when the world, about to change forever, watched in disbelief as four passenger airliners crashed, not only into buildings and a field in Shanksville Pennsylvania, but into the American certainty that the horrors of the outside world could not touch them at home. It was into this world that a new kind of superhero emerged, one for whom the lines between good and evil are blurred. Is he friend? Or is he foe? No one knows for sure. What they do know, however, is that as a friend there is no one better. In DragonMan: Descendants Of Man, the world as we know it is under a looming threat, not from ourselves, and our petty wars, but from an alien race of beings known as the Anunnaki. A race of beings that just might be our creators. This threat to humanity, long feared by many, has finally arrived, and the game of war is now being played out. The prize - for them, is the annihilation of a defiant species, the human race -- for us, SURVIVAL. Luke Starr, along with his companions at Starr Investigations will require not only courage and cunning to help defeat this menace from deep space, they will need the special talents only one possesses, DragonMan.
