My Lucky Days: A Novel

Synopsis

He was an up-and-coming country singer. She was the last girl you'd ever see in a bar. But one night, under those neon lights, Lucky and Katie found each other. Beginnings are always exciting. Always fun. Always hopeful. Katie was in her last year of college. Lucky was still playing local stages. She fell for his voice. She fell for his words. They fell in love. It was beautiful. But time changed their world. She was alone. He was on the road. Life happened. And that love was torn apart. Endings are always painful. Always heart wrenching. But not always final. One day, Lucky came back to Katie. And this is their story. Author Note: My Lucky Days is a Standalone Novel with sets of original song lyrics that read as poetry. Contemporary Romance - New Adult & College - Coming of Age - Second Chance - Love Story.

Customer Reviews

A music themed story with a second chance romance element? I gravitated to that idea right away. I thoroughly enjoy books that incorporate music onto them especially with own lyrics and such. I may not be a huge country fan but the fan that Lucky writes his own songs is a huge plus and it seems he would be the kind of artist I'd like. It's quite clever the country song title for the chapters, I listened to them while reading this and that definitely enhanced my experience." Don't be afraid of me or what's going on between us. Maybe it's fast. But if you spend your whole life worrying, then you will forget to live. Don't get caught up in the maybes."When Katie met Lucky it was something new but feel right. They had a steady thing going, it was pretty sweet to watch. They had a hopeful and excited start, the banter and how they are together. It all seemed too good all at once but it was felt deep. But as an up and coming singer things slowly became different for Lucky, a musician's lifestyle is difficult and on the go. Life happens and you can't predict it sometimes. Maybe it just wasn't the right time for them. I liked that Lucky and Katie's story was not so simple but it was meaningful. It grabbed me from the start. I rooted for them and I adored them together and my heart broke for them. It started it felt like it was an everyday possible kind of love story feel. Lucky is definitely swoon worthy, his kind, sweet, genuine and down to earth charm way about him. Plus I can imagine what he'd sound like, his feelings expressed in song. Katie had an unusual childhood and that still has an effect of her. I liked her though a loyal friend and has her vulnerabilities. I can get her hesitation to start again.

My Lucky Days by S D Hendrickson may not be a rockstar romance but it will sing to your soul. Legendary Country Superstar Landon Evans has a secret. He's not the country superstar the world knows. Before he was Landon Evans, he had another life that was full of secrets and heartbreak. He was a boy who was abandoned and lucky enough to be taken in by the Evans family. His legal name may be Landon Evans but his family and friends know him as Lucky Evans. Lucky Evans life was charmed and full of love. His dreams of becoming a country star cost him dearly. He lost the love of his life. He lost the beat of his heart. Eight years later he may be a superstar but he is still the same guy that gave his heart away to a girl with the prettiest green eyes and sweetest smile. Landon Evans is determined to become Lucky once again and win his girl's heart. This time around it's not only his and Katie's heart on the line. This time around they are all going to be lucky. Katie met Lucky in her last year of college. She was studying to become a teacher and determined to put roots down in their small town. Her parents had moved her all over the country before she went to college. Meeting a boy on the path to stardom that would keep him away from home and on the road was the last thing she wanted in her life. Lucky stole her heart and she was willing to try. Their love was charmed until life dealt them both a huge dose of reality just when Lucky's career was taking off. Rather than fighting for their love, they listened to their heads rather than their hearts. Their love was so pure that neither one could move on. It took eight years to bring them back together in an epic way. This time they are listening to their hearts.
