A Love Like Ours: Two Short Stories

Synopsis

A Love Like Ours includes two short stories written by Samantha Grace Moran: • The Woodcarver's Home • and • Our Family Tree. • These heartwarming tales capture themes of faith, hope, love, family, and friendship in a beautiful way. • The Woodcarver's Home: • Home is the place that Ephraim Johnson longs for most. As an old backwoodsman living in the seclusion of the mountains, he passes time by talking to his dog, Maggie, and creating one-of-a-kind woodcarvings. His days are quiet and lonely. But everything changes. Alone in his cabin on a cold winter's night, Ephraim carves some very special wooden figures that take him on a journey through his memories. Suddenly, voices and images from his past fill the room. Will this flood of memories bring him comfort or pain? Perhaps both, but most of all, will Ephraim's empty cabin ever truly be a home again? • Our Family Tree: • The Harpers and the McMullens have been feuding for generations. And now the rivalry has spread to Clara Harper and her natural nemesis, Gideon McMullen. Despite her resolve to avoid all McMullens like a good Harper girl, Clara cannot help her attraction to Gideon. Once childhood best friends, these two young adults are now faced with a decision: will their pride spur them to uphold their families' tradition of fighting, or will love be the key to ending the senseless feud once and for all?

Customer Reviews

"A Love Like Ours" by Samantha Moran depicts the enduring love between two different couples. I was deeply touched by the poignant love story in "The Woodcarver's Home." It was amazing how the author was able to show the great love the woodcarver had for each of his family members. As he carved each special figure, he was reminded of the love and fond memories he had for each one of them. Each family member came to life as he remembered them, I felt like I was a part of his family, his memories. For days I kept thinking about the woodcarver and his family. I was grateful for the way the author expressed the love of this family in such a creative and memorable way.

Great and we'll do
